Our members are professionals who work in hospitals, schools, private practices, skilled nursing facilities, home care, universities and early intervention, serving people across the lifespan.

- NJSHA has more than 1,200 members
- More than 800 individuals attend the annual NJSHA Convention
- Every year more than 100 students attend to present their research at the NJSHA Convention
- NJSHA is the go-to place in the state for continuing education

We welcome you to begin your year-long journey with NJSHA, starting with a presence at the 2026 NJSHA Annual Convention. Together we can provide effective communication and the highest quality of life for those we serve.
